

DIRECTOR OF ENGINEERING

Four Seasons Resort Hualalai - Big Island of Hawaii

This position will serve on the Executive Committee and report directly to the General Manager with overall responsibility for all aspects of hotel and building maintenance including electrical, plumbing, steam, gas, fire & safety, HVAC refrigeration, interior, paint and decorating for a 243 room oceanfront luxury resort with multiple dining outlets, pools and water features. Property footprint is 865 acres and includes a high-end residential component in which engineering services are often contracted.

Education: High school education or equivalent experience. Trade school in mechanics, refrigeration etc.

Experience: Two to five years in a related position with a large scale luxury hotel market or similar residential organization.

Skills and Abilities: Requires a working technical knowledge of general building maintenance. Working knowledge is generally learned on-the-Job or through a series of professional certifications. Must possess a current license as an Operating Engineer.

HOW TO APPLY:

Apply on-line at: www.fourseasons.com/careers

Fax resume to: (808) 325-8315

View our career website: <http://careers.fourseasons.com>

Follow us on Twitter: <http://twitter.com/FourSeasonsJobs>